Understanding the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible

Historical Background

The Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church is one of the oldest Christian denominations in the world, with roots tracing back to the 4th century CE. Its scriptures, known collectively as the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible, have a history that predates many other Christian texts. The translation of the Bible into Ge'ez, the liturgical language of the church, began in the early centuries of Christianity, making it one of the earliest translations of biblical texts. The Ethiopian Orthodox Bible is distinguished by its extensive collection of books, some of which are not found in other Christian Bibles. This reflects the unique theological and cultural development of Ethiopian Christianity over centuries.

Language and Manuscripts

Historically, the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible was written in Ge'ez, an ancient Semitic language that is now primarily used liturgically. Today, translations are available in Amharic, Tigrinya, and other local languages to make the scriptures accessible to modern followers. Many ancient manuscripts of the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible are preserved in monasteries and religious institutions across Ethiopia. These manuscripts, often handwritten on parchment, are treasured for their artistry and historical value.
