Key Points of Context: - The Great Depression: A period of economic collapse that led to widespread unemployment, poverty, and displacement. Many workers moved from place to place seeking employment. - Labor Camps and Company Housing: During this era, it was common for farms, ranches, and labor camps to provide basic, communal housing for workers—often rudimentary and shared facilities. - Migration of Workers: Men and women traveled extensively, often living in temporary accommodations like the bunkhouse, which was designed to house multiple workers efficiently.
