The Context of the Revolutionary Generation

The Birth of a Nation in Turmoil

The late 18th century was a period of profound upheaval for the American colonies. Colonists faced increasing taxation, lack of representation, and a desire for autonomy. These tensions culminated in the American Revolutionary War (1775–1783), a conflict that not only sought independence from Britain but also aimed to establish a new political and social order.

Challenges of Building a New Government

The Articles of Confederation initially governed the nation, but weaknesses soon became apparent. The need for a stronger federal structure led to the Constitutional Convention of 1787, where the founding fathers crafted the U.S. Constitution—an enduring document that balanced federal and state powers.
